'CITIZENSHIP IN REPUBLIC' TOPIC OF FIRST SPEECH

Roosevelt Addresses Student Body of Famous University of Paris Today.

Emphasizes Common Virtues of Homes and State.

IDEALS AND COMMON SENSE.

Paris, April 23. (United Press).—Theodore Roosevelt today addressed the students at Sorbonne on "Citizenship in a Republic." He said in part:

Under other forms of government, under rule of one man or of a very few men, the quality of the rulers is all-important. If, under such governments, the quality of the rulers is high enough, then the nation may for generations lead a brilliant career, and add substantially to the sum of world achievement, no matter how low the quality of the average citizen; because the average citizen is an almost negligible quantity in working out the final results of that type of national greatness.

But with you and with us the case is different. With you here, and with us in my own home, in the long run, success or failure will be conditioned upon the way in which the average man, the average woman, does his or her duty, first in the ordinary, every-day affairs of life, and next in those great occasional crises which call for the heroic virtues. The average citizen must be a good citizen if our republics are to succeed. The stream will not permanently rise higher than the main source; and the main source of national power and national greatness is found in the average citizenship of the nation. Therefore it behooves us to do our best to see that the standard of the average citizen is kept high; and the average cannot be kept high unless the standard of the leaders is very much higher.

It is well if a large proportion of the leaders in any republic, in any democracy, are, as a matter of course, drawn from the classes represented in this audience today; but only provided that those classes possess the gifts of sympathy with plain people and of devotion to great ideals. You and those like you have received special advantages; you have all of you had the opportunity for mental training; many of you have had leisure; most of you have had a chance for the enjoyment of life far greater than comes to the majority of your fellows. To you and your kind much has been given, and from you much should be expected. Yet there are certain failings against which it is especially incumbent that both men of trained and cultivated intellect, and men of inherited wealth and position, should especially guard themselves, because to these failings they are especially liable; and if yielded to, their—your—chances of useful service are at an end.

Cynicism. Let the man of learning, the man of lettered leisure, beware of that queer and cheap temptation to pose to himself and to others as the cynic, as the man who has outgrown emotions and beliefs, the man to whom good and evil are as one. The poorest way to face life is to face it with a sneer. There are many men who feel a kind of twisted pride in cynicism; there are many who confine themselves to criticism of the way others do what they themselves dare not even attempt. There is no more unhealthy being, no man less worthy of respect, than he who either really holds, or feigns to hold, an attitude of sneering disbelief towards all that is great and lofty, whether in achievement or in that noble effort which, even if it fail, comes second to achievement. A cynical habit of thought and speech, a readiness to criticize work which the critic himself never tries to perform, an intellectual aloofness which will not accept contact with life's realities—all these are, marks, not, as the possessor would fain think, of superiority, but of weakness. They mark the men unfit to bear their part manfully in the stern strife of living, who seek, in the affectation of contempt for the achievements of others, to hide from others and from themselves their own weakness. The role is easy; there is none easier, save only the role of the man who sneers alike at both criticism and performance.

It is not the critic who counts; not the man who points out now the strong man stumbles, or where

Ten Thousand Jews Are Expelled From Kieff, Russia, by Orders From Premier Stolypin to the Military

Members of Stock Exchange Are Told to Cease Importunities in Behalf of People.

Berlin, April 23.—Ten thousand Jews were driven from their homes today in Kieff, Russia. The expulsion is said to have been carried out by direct orders of Premier Stolypin. The Jews are accused of settling in the city without permission from the government. All Jews are not expelled. Those who always lived in the city will remain. It is feared this is the beginning of an anti-Semitic demonstration.

The police of Kieff, are allotted five days in which to clear all non-permanent Jews from the city. The city has been divided into quarters, and a government official with a force of police and soldiers is in charge of each quarter. Jews have made inroads into the commerce of the Russians. Merchants appealed to the premier, and an order of expulsion was promulgated. Leading members of the stock exchange, who sent a petition, asking leniency for the Jews, were told to keep their hands off as further interference would be resented by the government.

ANOTHER WITNESS FOR STATE SICK

IMPORTANT TESTIMONY WILL BE DELAYED FOR WEEK OR MORE.

Kansas City, April 23.—Prosecutor Conkling in the Hyde trial was notified today of the illness of R. D. Mitchell. The important witness for the state who will be unable to attend court for some time. The deposition of Mrs. John M. Cleary will be taken today. It is expected to prove that Hyde was at her home when suspected of poisoning the Swope family with typhoid germs.

D. A. R. MEETING CONCLUDES TODAY

INSURGENTS CAPTURE ONE LIFE OFFICE—REGULARS WIN THE MOST.

Washington, April 23.—With the final meeting of the Continental Congress, D. A. R. regulars and insurgents broke even in the battle for control. It was a blow to the regulars when the insurgents elected Mrs. T. Kinney, a staunch supporter of Mrs. William Cummings Story, vice president general, an office of life tenure. The regulars elected most of the vice presidents.

Eunice, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Steyers, of Symsonia, Ky., died late yesterday afternoon of malarial fever. The funeral was held this morning and burial took place in the Clark's river cemetery.

Coldest April Day is Report From West

The prediction is freezing temperature here tonight.

At Chicago. Chicago, April 23.—A heavy storm struck Chicago last night and continued this morning. Ships in the harbor are endangered. The schooner Cora A., a lumber boat, was disabled and towed into port. The Iowa, one of the largest passenger boats, was beached near Racine, Wis., and is reported not in danger. Fifteen passengers are aboard. The snowfall made it impossible

THE WEATHER

The predictions and temperature for the past twenty-four hours will be found at the top of the seventh column on page four.

COTTON MEN. Liverpool, April 23.—Liverpool cotton men expect to weather the storm caused by the failure of Knight, Yancy & Company, providing there is no further trouble with spurious bills of lading. They will ask for a basis of settlement similar to the grain exchange.

BRYAN ENDORSES MARSHALL'S PLAN

TO HAVE CANDIDATE NOMINATED AT DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Indianapolis, Ind., April 23.—Governor Marshall today made public a telegram received from William Jennings Bryan in which the commoner upholds Marshall's plans to have the Democratic state convention next week endorse a candidate for U. S. senator. Bryan said: "I congratulate you on having the convention endorse a Democratic candidate for U. S. senator. The nomination of a Republican candidate makes it imperative for the Democrats to meet the issue solidly with a clean cut platform and a strong candidate."

Alleged Black Crook.

Robert Tice, colored, alleged to be the "con man" who worked Bradley Brothers Coal company for $15.45 a few days ago, was arrested by Patrolman Emilie Gourelux. He was held over to the circuit court grand jury this morning from police court and his bail fixed at $300.

PADUCAHAN GOES TO SOUTH AFRICA

WELL KNOWN TOBACCO MAN WILL HAVE CHARGE OF WAREHOUSE.

Mr. T. E. Elgin, with W. B. Kennedy in the tobacco brokerage and rebalancing business, has been offered the position of manager of one of the tobacco warehouses in Transvaal, South Africa. The appointment is quite a flattering one and carries with it a handsome salary with increase each year, under the civil service regulations. Transportation is furnished from Paducah to Pretoria. The offer comes from the agent general of the Transvaal, office in London. Mr. Elgin has called his acceptance and will leave at an early date.

Mr. Elgin has been in Paducah about a year and a half, coming here from Hopkinsville. He has made a host of friends both in a social and business way in Paducah. He is in charge of the loose floor department of the Kennedy warehouse and is a man of fine business qualifications, as well as those other sterling attributes that go to make a man. He has been prominently identified with the tobacco business in Kentucky and the offer is a complimentary recognition of his ability.

SOUTHWESTERN KY. MEDICAL SOCIETY TO MEET IN MAY

Program of Session is Completed and Mailed Out Today.

Valuable Work in Interest of Profession.

MANY DOCTORS ARE COMING.

Paducah will be the mecca of physicians from all over the southwestern part of the state Tuesday and Wednesday, May 10 and 11, when the fortieth annual session of the Southwestern Medical association will be held. The meeting will last two days and will be adjourned on the afternoon of the second day. The meetings will be held at the city hall.

The visiting physicians will be guests of the McCracken County Medical society, which is preparing a reception for them. The committee on entertainment is working to make the visit of the physicians one of the most pleasant in the history of the association and a banquet will probably be arranged for later on as the closing event. A number of local physicians will deliver lectures.

The program has been completed after hard work on the part of Dr. C. E. Purcell, secretary of the association. He has worked faithfully and his work reflects much credit to himself. The programs have been printed and will be issued this afternoon in pamphlet form. Dr. Purcell will begin mailing them over this part of the state tonight and tomorrow. The attendance this year promises to be large.

BANK CLEARINGS TAKE BIG LEAP THIS WEEK

Clearings this week $808,788. Same week last year 627,160. Increase 271,628.

One of the largest increases in the bank clearings in many weeks is shown today by a comparison of the clearings of 1909 with the figures of this week. The splendid increase is due the regular business, which has been rather lively this week.

PRESIDENT TAFT URGES HIS POSTAL BANK LAW

Washington, April 23.—With the possibility of congress adjourning June 1, President Taft today began an effort to get action on the postal savings bank bill. The president is confident the railroad bill will pass and hopes his injunction bills will be passed. He told friends today he believes the passing of the postal banks bill is necessary to uphold his platform promises. He expects the house Republicans to hold a caucus on the bank bill next week.

COMMISSION TO VIEW PROPERTY

W. M. JAMES, GEORGE EMERY AND HARRY GEORGE ARE APPOINTED.

W. M. James, real estate dealer, George Emery, real estate dealer, and Harry George, contractor, compose the commission appointed by City Engineer Washington and President Ed Hannan, of the board of aldermen, and President Al Foreman, of the board of councilmen, to re-appraise all the property in the city. They will receive $100 a month each, working eight hours a day, and they will be occupied with the work about eight months. They will view every bit of real estate, using the block map as far as it is completed. They will have their report ready for the quadrennial assessment.

Work of Criminal Court Concludes First Week--Former Sheriff Not Prosecuted--Pullman Co. Indictment.

Without having an examining trial in police court this morning, Albert Hale and Bert Guire, charged with the murder of Luther ("Red") Thompson, were held over to the grand jury and the witnesses recognized under $100 each to appear forthwith before that body at the county court house.

The court room was packed with a curious crowd that took in every move with open mouths and eyes. Guire and Hale, seated together on the prisoners' bench, were unconcerned. The following witnesses were recognized to go before the grand jury: Mrs. Mollie Thompson, J. D. Quinlan, Police Sergeant E. H. Cross, Patrolman R. W. Vick, Pete Elch, C. W. Emery, James Collins, A. W. Church, Mrs. Ethel Church, A. Bouguard, Jake Roush, T. J. Moore, Herod Dawson, R. B. Sanderson, Arthur Sanderson, Pete Weldon, Jim Womble, Chief of Police Singery, Simon Turner, J. N. Moore, Hub McNeil and Clayton Phelps.

Neither Guire or Hale had employed an attorney. They will plead not guilty. They were transferred back to the county jail immediately after the case was held over.

Hale Writes Home.

For the first time Albert Hale has realized the seriousness of the evidence pending against him. He is still hopeful, but since the coming of Mrs. Thompson he has been somewhat nervous. Yesterday Hale wrote several letters to people in Decatur, asking for funds with which to employ a lawyer to make a defense of any indictment that might be returned against him. When seen in his cell Hale said: "Yes it may be that things look more serious against me, but I am not afraid. Everything will come out all right."

Mrs. Thompson and a number of witnesses were called before the grand jury this morning. Indictments had not been returned this afternoon. Some of the county officials doubt whether sufficient evidence has been gathered to lead to the returning of an indictment for murder against Hale and Guire.

Money Given Mrs. Thompson. Through the efforts of Mrs. E. R. Mills, milliner, at 316 Broadway,

THREE MINERS RESCUED ALIVE THIS MORNING

Amsterdam, Ohio, April 23.—Three of the eighteen miners, trapped by the explosion Thursday, were rescued alive this morning. Thirteen of the dead were recovered. The men were found in the rear corner unconscious.

TWAIN'S BODY IS ROBED IN WHITE

WILL BE TAKEN TO ELMIRA THIS AFTERNOON FOR BURIAL THERE.

Redding, Conn., April 23.—The body of Mark Twain started on its journey to Elmira this morning. The body was viewed by neighbors. He was clothed in a white serge suit, the same that he affected during his life. Relatives and old family servants accompanied the body to New York, where it will lie in state at the Presbyterian church till after the services this afternoon.

Welcome for Paducahans.

Capt. W. G. Whitefield, of James T. Walbert camp, U. C. V., will leave Monday at noon for Mobile. Today he had a telegram from Frank P. Andrews, of Mobile, who went out from Paducah with Captain Pell's company, saying: "Win meet the boys at the train. Bring all you can." About 20 of the veterans will go from here.

BOYS WHO WORE THE GRAY LEAVE MONDAY MORNING

Will Attend Reunion of Confederate Army at Mobile, Alabama.

Sponsor For Kentucky And Her Attendants.

CHAPERONE OF FOREST MEN.

To attend the annual Confederate reunion, which will be held in Mobile, Ala., April 26, 27, and 28, an enthusiastic representation of Confederate veterans and Daughters of the Confederacy will leave Paducah early next week, and move on to the southern city. Monday will be the day of departure for most of the party. A special train will leave at 11:30 o'clock over the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, and many will take advantage of this to go through to Mobile. However, some of the veterans will not leave until 2:15 o'clock in order that they travel via Corinth, Miss., and pass through much of the territory, where they fought.

The reunion promises to be one of the most successful ever held, and the three days stay in Mobile will be replete with entertainment for the brave sons of the south and the fair daughters, who will be the sponsors and maids of honor. Miss Mabel McNichols, sponsor for the state of Kentucky, and Mrs. Roy W. McKinney, chaperone of the sponsor and maids of honor of Forrest cavalry corps, will leave Paducah Sunday morning at 7:45 o'clock for Mobile. They will arrive earlier than the remainder of the party, but it will be necessary for Mrs. McKinney to leave Sunday. At Jackson, Tenn., they will meet Miss Marie Brevard of Hickman, an honorary member of the staff of Forrest's cavalry.

General Bennett S. Young, of Louisville, who appointed Miss McNichols sponsor of Kentucky, has named Miss Mattie Welch Logan, of Shelbyville, and Miss Cecil Gordon, of Louisville, as maids of honor, and Mrs. William Bateman, of Lexington, chaperone, to the staff of the Kentucky sponsor. With the exception of Miss McNichols, the party will assemble in Louisville and will proceed to Mobile.

The Maids of Honor.

Miss Logan is a member of a prominent family of the Bluegrass section, and she is a second cousin of General Robert E. Lee, while two of her uncles fought throughout the war. She will be graduated from the Science Hill school with the 1910 class. Her father is a professor at Salem, Va. Miss Gordon is a daughter of Judge Thomas Gordon, members of the family are distinguished for service rendered for the Confederacy. Recently she was graduated from the Randolph-Macon university at Lynchburg, Va. She is the daughter of a prominent family in Louisville.

Mrs. Bateman, the chaperone, is one of the most active workers in the state for the Daughters of the Confederacy. She is chairman of the committee arranging for the erection of a monument in Lexington to the memory of General John H. Morgan. Through the efforts of Mrs. Bateman the last legislature passed a bill giving $7,500 for the monument and Governor Willson approved the bill. A year ago last summer Mrs. Bateman visited Paducah in the interest of the funds for the monument, and she delighted the members of the chapter, who met her. She is a personal friend of Mrs. McKinney.

The members of the Kentucky party will be entertained at the Battle House, Mobile, which is a place of historic interest. Wednesday evening the soldier boys of Mobile will entertain at the armory in honor of the staff of General Tyler. The members of the staff are: Miss Frances Mayes Harris, of Jackson, Miss.; sponsor, Miss Margaret Hoyte, of Nashville and Miss Bessie Louise Cox, of Mobile, Ala., maids of honor; and Mrs. Roy W. McKinney, of Paducah, chaperone.

WOMAN BITTEN BY SNAKE HAS CHANCE FOR LIFE

As a result of being bitten by a copperhead snake at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Mrs. Minnie Scheer, 45 years old wife of Taylor Scheer, of the St. John's neighborhood, is lying in a precarious condition at her home today. Hope for her recovery was expressed today by her physician, Dr. Q. L. Shelton, of Lone Oak, and she showed some signs of improvement this afternoon.
